

SUSTAINABILITY

The South Orange County Community College District will develop practices and procedures that continue the legacy of leadership in sustainability in all areas of the colleges, including faculty and staff development, instruction, operations, construction, facilities, land use, energy conservation, and environmental integrity. The Energy and Sustainability Regulation will include goals and guidance for all facets of the college that ensure the evolution of best practices in sustainability.